

K-Love radio is the only radio station I listen too at home and at work. It is a critical part of my work day.

Losing K-Love to a LPFM radio would be very negative, as I'd lose access to Christian radio.

I think K-Love is in the public interest, particularly in Salt Lake, to provide diversity of thought regarding religion.